ABOUT ME

As a novice in the modeling world, I've come to realize that life is a rollercoaster of ups and downs, obstacles and struggles. Rather than letting these challenges hold me back, I've learned to use them as a springboard to reach my true aspirations. After 45 years, I've finally accepted myself, flaws and all, and I'm now embracing my authentic self in this new chapter of my life. My goal is to show that class and style know no age or circumstance, rather they reside within each of us waiting to be unleashed.

In December of 2024 I was fortunate to have had my first professional modeling session at Studio-1 in Nashville, working with several talented individuals who guided and influenced me, helping sharpen my skills while staying true to myself by utilizing my wealth of experience in self-expression, effortlessly blending masculine and feminine styles to make a bold statement.

As I continue to build my portfolio, I hope to connect with more professionals in the Nashville area, learning from their experience and expertise. I'm eager to work hard, build meaningful relationships with brands, photographers, agents & the community, and serve as an inspiration by demonstrating perseverance and a commitment to growth, ultimately helping the brands with which those relationships are built to thrive.
